

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE.

VOL. LI. NO. 20

CAMDEN, TENNESSEE.

NOVEMBER 12, 1915

OFFICERS NAMED FOR PRIMARY

The County Primary Board to hold the elections for the selection of a Democratic nominee for United States Senator, met in the office of the Circuit Court Clerk of Benton County, Tenn., at Camden November 5, 1915, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of selecting the officers to hold said election on Saturday, November 20, 1915, the following members of said board being present: J. D. Brown, C. N. Frazier, W. G. Fry and G. B. Holladay (G. M. Leslie being unavoidably absent) and the following proceedings were had:

The meeting was called to order by the secretary, C. N. Frazier, and W. G. Fry was made chairman pro tem.

On motion, the board proceeded to appoint the following officers to serve at said election on November 20, 1915, to wit:

First district—W. T. Henry, receiving officer; C. N. Matlock, A. J. Goodman and Bob Daniel, judges; E. M. Hatley and A. J. Fry, clerks.

Second—J. B. Flowers, receiving officer; O. P. Kirk, W. O. Council and T. C. Flowers, judges; D. B. Gossett and G. E. Woods, clerks.

Third—W. R. Williams, receiving officer; A. E. Swindle, T. C. Bledsoe and J. T. Johnson, judges; J. H. Ferguson and D. V. Hardin, clerks.

Fourth—J. B. Reed, receiving officer; W. T. Hicks, D. Q. Kee and Bryant Pierce, judges; J. R. Jones and Bob Bridges, clerks.

Fifth—W. N. McDaniel, receiving officer; Clay Rushing, Joe C. Cowell and H. F. Stigall, judges; G. H. Harper and Roy R. Melton, clerks.

Sixth—C. L. Hicks, receiving officer; J. B. Bullock, J. L. Wright and J. C. Rushing, judges; H. A. Greer and P. J. Floyd, clerks.

Seventh—O. C. Patrick, receiving officer; F. P. Wheatley, A. A. Melton and T. J. Melton, judges; M. F. Berry and J. F. Melton, clerks.

Eighth—J. C. Herrin, receiving officer; T. C. Craney, W. H. Hicks and E. G. Flowers, judges; W. B. Akers and T. A. Rushing, clerks.

Ninth—John Askew, receiving officer; W. W. Young, T. C. Climer and John Doherty, judges; Dewitt Pierce and C. Clement, clerks.

Tenth—S. W. Cuff, receiving officer; W. E. Bates, G. T. Lashlee and M. L. Holland, judges; J. W. Maiden and J. F. Lindsey, clerks.

Eleventh—F. A. Simmons, receiving officer; Thomas Smith, J. V. Woods and Odo McDaniel, judges; M. A. Brown and Marshall Baker, clerks.

MALCOLM R. PATTERSON

Twelfth—Clem Ballard, receiving officer; C. C. Hollingsworth, J. F. Johnson and J. M. Kee, judges; J. W. Greer and E. E. Jordan, clerks.

Thirteenth—Joe McLin, receiving officer; Sam Odle, H. A. Rice and W. D. Cantrell, judges; A. J. Coble and T. N. Wesson, clerks.

Fourteenth—M. L. Harris, receiving officer; H. J. Brown, L. C. Barnes and W. H. Hyatt, judges; D. B. Farr and E. L. Barnes, clerks.

Fifteenth—D. C. Russell, receiving officer; W. M. Pafford, W. R. Summers and T. P. Farrar, judges; A. R. Brooks and Zach Clayton, clerks.

Sixteenth—E. G. Hall, receiving officer; Joe Fitzsimmons, I. N. Hill and R. C. Redick, judges; John M. Beaton and M. L. Lindsey, clerks.

On motion, the board adjourned.
W. G. FRY,
J. D. BROWN,
G. B. HOLLADAY,
C. N. FRAZIER,
G. M. LESLIE,
Primary Board

The Baptists of Big Sandy are preparing to build a house of worship at that place.

Leave your orders for bran with the Holland Grocery Co.

COUNTY NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

HOLLADAY.

G. C. Kirk was in Camden one day last week.

Will Johnson of Murray, Ky., is visiting friends here.

Roy Carey of Poplar Springs spent the week-end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Cain of McIlwain visited here Friday.

Born, Thursday, November 4, to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Oxford, a girl.

Farmers are busy garnering the fruits of spring and summer labor.

Mrs. G. W. Kirk has gone to Eva to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Durdin.

W. J. Barnes and W. G. Robinson attended quarterly conference at McIlwain Saturday.

Dr. W. B. Leslie has purchased the lot where the residence of C. S. Earp was recently burned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Prince spent Sunday at Chaseville with the former's father, W. T. Prince.

A part of Colonel Holder's wild west show is encamped near Holladay, enroute farther South.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Aden spent Sunday on Birdsong with Mrs. Nancy McBride, who was recently stricken with paralysis, and is no better at this writing.

PALESTINE.

The peanut growers are gathering their crop.

C. M. M. Harris is no better, we regret to learn.

Joel Nunnery of Shiloh visited A. J. Mealer last week.

Mesdames T. J. Earp and E. B. Oxford are on the sick list.

Mrs. H. J. Brown visited her niece, Mrs. J. M. Arnold, Sunday.

John and G. Pierce and Henry Brown were in Camden Saturday.

We are glad to learn of the improved condition of Mrs. M. L. Harris.

Claude Hicks of Cross Roads visited in this community the first of the week.

Uncle Carroll Barnes and wife of Liberty spent the week-end here with their son, L. C. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson of Union spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. E. B. Oxford.

Garland Baker spent a short while last week in Holladay with his aunt, Mrs. Jackson McCurdy.

Misses Collie Robinson, Lillian Oxford and Dora Harris spent the week-end with Misses Cora and Tola Pierce of Liberty.

H. N. Cole has moved his family to Center Hill, and W. C. Harris of Cross Roads has moved to the place vacated by Mr. Cole.

Misses Maggie Brown and Victoria Reeves of Holladay spent Friday with the family of the former's brother, H. J. Brown.

SAWYER'S MILL.

Lawrence Parks and family visited here Sunday.

Virgil Boxd of High Ridge has moved his family here.

The condition of the little son of J. P. Jordan is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bond were guests of J. D. Bond Sunday.

Miss Johnnie Bell Hatley resumed her school here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hollingsworth were guests of W. C. Ballard Sunday.

Last Sunday at 9 o'clock a. m. Justice C. C. Hollingsworth said the words that united Velzie Holland and Clara Bond in marriage. We wish them a long and happy married life.

On October 18, Madge, daughter of Oscar Bell, died of consumption, after several months' illness. She believed until the last that she would recover, bearing her suffering with Christian fortitude. She was a member of the Baptist Church and told friends that she was going to meet her mother, who died when Madge was small. The bereaved family have our heart-felt sympathy.

CENTER HILL.

A. Herndon is no better at this at this writing.

Miss Dora Cole spent Saturday with Miss Eva Pierce.

Carlyle Johnson was a sabbath guest of A. O. Medlin.

Mrs. Mark Cole visited Miss Reon Herndon Sunday.

Miss Virgie Medlin spent Saturday with Miss Laura Johnson.

Miss Nora Cole visited Miss Ellen Medlin the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Hester Mitchell visited her aunt, Mrs. Vick Johnson, one day last week.

A. O. Medlin and wife visited the family of J. W. Johnson first of the week.

Thomas Johnson of Chalk L. visited his brother, John Johnson the first of the week.

Maurice and Melton Hatley of Holladay were guests of J. W. Johnson last Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Webb of Cross Roads spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Sallie Williams.

Misses Sudie Webb and Jewell McClure spent the week-end with Misses Laura Johnson and Nora Cole.

LAST WEEK.

Carlyle Johnson spent Sunday afternoon with A. Herndon.

Prayer services will be held at Shiloh next Saturday evening.

Miss Jewell McClure spent last Tuesday with Miss Laura Johnson.

Mrs. Mamie Guynn visited M. Vick Johnson one day last week.

Mrs. Arve Johnson spent Tuesday night with Mrs. J. W. Johnson.

Rev. Arco Robinson preached to a large audience at Shiloh last Sunday.

Maurice and Melvin Hatley of Holladay were sabbath guests of J. W. Johnson.

A. Herndon, who has been sick for some time, is no better at this writing.

Miss Dora Cole of Palestine was the week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. S. Cole.

We are glad to report the improved condition of Mrs. Nannie Markham, who has been very sick with typhoid fever.

Leave your orders for magazines and other periodicals at the office of The Chronicle.

Give the Holland Grocery Co. an order for a barrel of Favorite Flour. Its a "favorite" all right.

All parties who owe us either by account or note that is due or will be due by November 15 will please come in promptly and settle.

STIGALL & POTTS.

We Invite You

To hear ex-Governor Malcolm R. Patterson at Camden Tuesday, November 16, at 1 p. m. His friends have arranged for a spacious tent and will have seats for everybody. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Ruskin Cave Band. Let everybody come and hear the South's greatest orator in his masterful plea for good roads, better farming conditions, rural credits and good government.

D. R. GOODMAN,
Manager.